Fresh market rates of Government lands

*153. SHRI VIREN J. SHAH : Will the Minister of URBAN DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state :

(a) whether Government have decided about fresh market rates for Government lands in different parts of Delhi;

(b) if so, what are the fresh rates fixed for residential and commercial lands in different parts of Delhi;

(c) what are the criteria in which these rates have been fixed ;

(d) the date from which these rates have been made effective ; and

(e) whether Government invited comments from the public before fixing the rates, if not, what are the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF URBAN DEVE LOPMENT (SHRIMATI SHEILA KAUL) : (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) Schedule of market rates are given in the Statement laid on the Table of the Sabha. (See below).

(c) The pre-determined residential rates are worked out on the basis of the previous notified rates and trend in market as reflected in auction prices of Delhi Development Authority and assessment made by the Income-tax Authority. The pre-determined commercial rate is fixed at double the residential rate except the Central Zone where it is 3 times.

(d) These rates are effective from 1-4-1991.

(e) The land rates are fixed for Government lands under the control of the Land Development Office in the light of the procedure as mentioned in (c) above. Comments from public are not invited.
